

ZOE DAVIS

AVID OFFLINE / PREMIERE

PROFILE

Zoe is an award-winning documentary editor with 20 years experience, working on films for Netflix, BBC, Channel 4, Channel 5, CNN, Al Jazeera English Channel and National Geographic.

She has experience in the following documentary genres: natural history, science and technology, factual, archive and observational.

Recently, she edited on the Netflix Original science and natural history series, 'Alien Worlds.' Other recent credits include 'Equator from the Air' (BBC2), 'The Parkinson's Drug Trial' (BBC2), and working with the legendary editor Walter Murch on 'Coup 53,' which premiered at BFI London Film Festival.

Specialising in Avid and Premiere Pro, Zoe was inspired to pursue documentary editing when she became part of the team to launch the Al Jazeera English Channel in 2006. Her work has won multiple awards including RTS, Grierson and National Headliner Awards.
