

CARLY BROWN

AVID / PREMIERE

PROFILE

Carly is an exceptionally talented, confident and versatile editor with 9 years industry experience in broadcast TV, branded content and drama.

Her work ranges from crafting long form documentaries, to high end drama and cutting fast turnaround edits for live sports and entertainment shows. Recent credits and clients include feature film 'Misbehaviour' starring Keira Knightley (assistant editor), series 4 of 'The Crown' for Netflix (assistant editor), BBC, Channel 4, Channel 5, Amazon Prime, The Olympic Channel and multiple short film credits that light up the festival circuit.

In her previous role as in-house editor at Whisper Films, Carly cut a variety of online campaigns, commercials, mood reels, pitch films and taster tapes. These led to new commissions, clients and awards for the company: including major successful bids for the Winter Olympic Games on Channel 4 and Bose sponsorship of Channel 4's Formula 1 coverage.

She has also received industry recognition for her work. Featured in a 2018 Broadcast magazine as one of their 'Hot Shots,' she was also invited to join the Edinburgh TV Festivals 'One to Watch' 2018 talent scheme. In 2017 she was shortlisted for 'Broadcast TECH Young Talent Awards.'

A full member of BFE (British Film Editors), Carly is described by clients as fast, talented and committed. She always delivers, often going above and beyond to ensure the final product is the best it can be.
